2nd Annual Animal Affaire

San Juan County Sheriff's Posse

Four Corners Equine
Rescue

Welcome!

Three Rivers Back Country Horsemen, San Juan County Sheriff's Posse and Four Corners Equine Rescue are teaming up to bring the people of the area the 2nd Annual Animal Affaire. Saturday, June 9th, 2012 will be an all-day event at the Sheriff's Posse Grounds in Farmington featuring many exciting activities.

Our vision of this event is to provide people a day to relax and enjoy a variety of vendor booths for shopping, educational information, fun contests, a horse trail ride and a dog walk. The day is full of delightful and educational seminars to help people have a better relationship with their animals and enjoy a nice day.

This event is a fundraiser for Four Corners Equine Rescue, the San Juan County Sheriff's Posse and Three Rivers Back Country Horsemen. All proceeds will be used by these 3 community-service-oriented organizations to fund activities including rehabilitating abused horses, promoting horses with children activities and developing backcountry riding trails.

To bring this exciting event to the Four Corners, the 2nd Annual Animal Affaire will need support from the business community, as this is a very large undertaking. Sponsors and advertisers can be featured prominently in print, radio and television promotions. Accompanying this letter is a rate sheet describing the various options. Additionally, AAA is seeking participation in the forms of demonstrations, seminars, volunteers, props, vendors, and entertainers.

If you are interested in participating, please call:

Barbara Kiipper at 505-360-5996

Debbie Coburn at 505-334-7220

Milton Black at 505-860-9990
